SUBJECT East German Trade with Yugoslavia DATE DISTR. 9 March 1955  NO. OF PAGES 3.  DATE OF INFO.  REQUIREMENT  THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE.  THE APPLIAGA OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.  (FOR EXT SEE REVERS)  1. In November 1954, a new barter agreement was signed at Belgrade between the East German official trading organization DIA-Chemie and Chemikalia, Belgrade. East Germany will deliver among other things:  25X1  60,000 tons of potassium salts 800 tons of toluene nitroeniline (East Germany has previously refused to deliver this to Yugoslavia) 200 tons of Buna 83 at $340 per ton 1 30 tons of "Gentalit Rhenisch", an explosives stabilizer, also delivered for the first time 1  2. Other than traditional export products, Yugoslavia will deliver to East Germany 2,000 bottles of mercury at $376 per bottle. East Germany asked for large quantities of mercury sublimate which Yugoslavia was unable to supply because of heavily increased demands over the last three months. 3  Comments:  a wooding of Yugoslavia in the sudden deliveries of explosive constituents, and in the price of the Eman S3 which compares most favorably with the price of over $1,000 per ton.  25X1  3.		CENTRAI	. INTELI	LIGENCE	AGEN	NCY		•	This m	aterial con	tains info	mation a	ffecting th	: e Na-	;
SECRET  COUNTRY  East Germany/Yugoslavia  East German Trade with Yugoslavia  NO. OF PAGES  COUNTRY  East German Trade with Yugoslavia  NO. OF PAGES  COUNTRY  EAST GERMAN  REQUIREMENT  REQUIREMENT  PHACE ACQUIRED  This is UNEVALUATED Information  1. In November 1954, a new barter agreement was signed at Belgrade between the East German of Ficial trading organization DIA-Chemie and Chemikalia, Belgrade. East German of Ficial trading organization DIA-Chemie and Chemikalia, Belgrade. East German will deliver among other things:  60,000 tons of potassium salts 800 tons of toluene nitroaniline (East Germany has previously refused to deliver this to Yugoslavia) 200 tons of Suna S3 at $340 per ton 1 30 tons of "Gentalit Rhemisch", an explosives stabilizer, also delivered for the first time!  2. Other than traditional export products, Yugoslavia will deliver to East Germany 2,000 bottles of mercury sublimate which Yugoslavia was unable to supply because of heavily increased demands over the last three months. S  Comments:  a wooding of Yugoslavia in the sudden deliveries of explosive constituents, and in the price of the Duna S3 which compares most favorably with the price of over $1,000 per ton.  2. to possible for Yugoslavia to have saved up 2,000 bottles of 25X1  the possible for Yugoslavia to have saved up 2,000 bottles of 25X1  the seam of having to sell fixed quotas of the commodity  to use it to produce mercury.  25X1  25X1  25X1		INFOR	MATI	ON I	REPC	RT	· : ,		ing of and 794 any ma	the Espion , the trans	age Laws, smission o	Title 18. r revelati	U.S.C. Secon of whi	s. 793 ch in	\ \\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\
SURIECT East Germany Trade with Yugoslavia DATE DISTR. 9 March 1955  NO. OF PAGES 2.  PACE ACQUIRED  This is UNEVALUATED Information  The Source PRADUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE.  THE SOURCE PRADUATION.  THE S					`' 		SECRET	*	by isw.			*
PLACE ACQUIRED  This is UNEVALUATED Information  The SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS ERFORT ARE DEFINITIVE.  THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS THE INVALUATE.  (FOR MY SET ENVIRON.  THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS THE INVALUATE.  THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS THE INVALUATE.  THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS ERFORT ARE DEFINITIVE.  THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IN THE ENVIRON.  THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS ERFORT ARE DEFINITIVE.  THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IN THE ENVIRONMENT.  THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IN THE ENVIRONMENT.  THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS ERFORT ARE DEFINITIVE.  THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IN THE ENVIRONMENT.  THE APPRAISAL OF THE E	COUNTRY	Eas	st Germa	any/Yugo	oslavi	a			REPORT						25X1
PACE ACQUIRED  This is UNEVALUATED Information  This is UNEVALUATED Information  The SOURCE WALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE.  THE APPAULS OF CONTROL IS TRAINED.  1. In November 1954, a new barter agreement was signed at Belgrade between the East German official trading organization DIA-Chemie and Chemikalia, Belgrade.  East Germany will deliver among other things:  25X1  60,000 tons of potassium salts  800 tons of toluene nitronalline (East Germany has previously refused to deliver this to Tugoslavia)  200 tons of Buns 33 at $340 per ton <sup>1</sup> 30 tons of "Gentalit Rhenisch", an explosives stabilizer, also delivered for the first time <sup>1</sup> 2. Other than traditional export products, Yugoslavia will deliver to East Germany 2,000 bottles of mercury stablinate which Yugoslavia was unable to supply because of heavily increased demands over the last three months.  Comments:  Longents:  25X1  Comments:  1. a wooing of Yugoslavia in the sudden deliveries of explosive constituents, and in the price of the Buns 33 which compares most favorably with the price of over $1,000 per ton.  2. toposible for Yugoslavia to have saved up 2,000 bottles of 25X1 mercury in spite of having to sell fixed quotas of the commodity  The source of the demand for mercury sublimate arises because the price now makes it to produce mercury.  25X1  25X1	SUBJECT	Eas	st Germa	an Trade	e with	Yugos	slavia		DATE D	NSTR.		9 M	arch l	955
This is UNEVALUATED Information  This is UNEVALUATED Information  The SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS EMPORT ARE DEFINITIVE.  THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TRIVIATIVE.  (FOR EFF SEE SEVERSE)  1. In November 1954, a new barter agreement was signed at Belgrade between the East German official trading organization DIA-Chemic and Chemikalia, Belgrade.  East Germany will deliver among other things:  25X1  60,000 tons of potassium salts  800 tons of toluene nitronalline (East Germany has previously refused to deliver this to Tugoslavia)  200 tons of Buna S3 at $340 per tonl  30 tons of "Gentalit Rhenisch", an explosives stabilizer, also delivered for the first time!  2. Other than traditional export products, Yugoglavia will deliver to East Germany 2,000 bottles of mercury siblinate which Yugoslavia was unable to supply because of heavily increased demands over the last three months.  25X1  Commentsi  a wooding of Yugoslavia in the sudden deliveries of explosive constituents, and in the price of the Buna S3 which compares most favorably with the price of over $1,000 per ton.  25X1  commentsi  the sudden deliveries of explosive constituents, and in the price of the Buna S3 which compares most favorably with price of over $1,000 per ton.  25X1  3. of this commodity  the demand for mercury sublimate arises because the price for this commodity  how makes it economically worthwhile to use it to produce mercury.			+ 2					÷ .	NO. 0	F PAGES	2			Į.	_3
This is UNEVALUATED Information  The Source PVALUATIONS in this secont are definitive.  THE SOURCE PVALUATIONS IN THIS SECONT ARE DEFINITIVE.  THE APPLICA OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.  1. In November 1954, a new barter agreement was signed at Belgrade between the East German official trading organization DIA-Chemic and Chemikalia, Belgrade. East Germany will deliver among other things:  60,000 tons of potassium salts 800 tons of toluene nitroendline (East Germany has previously refused to deliver this to Tuposlevia).  200 tons of Buna S3 at $3.40 per ton 1 30 tons of "Gentalit Rhenisch", an explosives stabilizer, also delivered for the first time 1  2. Other than traditional export products, Yugoglavia will deliver to East Germany 2,000 bottles of mercury at $376 per bottle. East Germany asked for large quantities of mercury sublimate which Yugoslavia was unable to supply because of heavily increased demands over the last three months. 2  Comments:  a wooing of Yugoslavia in the sudden deliveries of explosive constituents, and in the price of the Buna S3 which compares most favorably with the price of over $1,000 per ton.  2. In possible for Yugoslavia to have saved up 2,000 bottles of mercury in spite of having to sell fixed quotas of the commodity 25X1  3. Of this commodity the demand for mercury sublimate arises because the price of this commodity 1000 per ton.  2. Denotes 25X1	DATE OF INFO	).						2×	REQUIR	EMENT
1. In November 1954, a new barter agreement was signed at Belgrade between the East Cerman official trading organization DIM-Chemie and Chemikalia, Belgrade. East Cermany will deliver among other things:  60,000 tons of potassium salts 800 tons of toluene nitrosalline (East Germany has previously refused to deliver this to Yugoslavia).  200 tons of Buna S3 at $3.0 per ton 1 30 tons of "Centalit Rhenisch", an explosives stabilizer, also delivered for the first time 1  2. Other than traditional export products, Yugoslavia will deliver to East Germany 2,000 bottles of mercury at $376 per bottle. East Germany asked for large quantities of mercury unblimate which Yugoslavia was unable to supply because of heavily increased demands over the last three months. 3  Comments:  a wooing of Yugoslavia in the sudden deliveries of explosive constituents, and in the price of the Buna S3 which compares most favorably with the price of over $1,000 per ton.  25X1  constituents, and in the price of the Buna S3 which compares most favorably with price of over $1,000 per ton.  25X1  cor this commodity the demand for mercury sublimate arises because the price or this commodity the demand for mercury sublimate arises because the price or this commodity to use it to produce mercury.	PLACE ACQUIR	ED								NCES				25 X 1	K.
1. In November 1954, a new barter agreement was signed at Belgrade between the East German official trading organization DIA-Chemie and Chemikalia, Belgrade. East Germany will deliver among other things:  60,000 tons of potassium salts 800 tons of toluene nitroaniline (East Germany has previously refused to deliver this to Yugoslavia) 200 tons of Buna S3 at $340 per ton! 30 tons of "Centalit Rhenisch", an explosives stabilizer, also delivered for the first time!  2. Other than traditional export products, Yugoslavia will deliver to East Germany 2,000 bottles of mercury at $76 per bottle. East Germany asked for large quantities of mercury sublimate which Yugoslavia was unable to supply because of heavily increased demands over the last three months.  Comments:  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1		eses de la companya d La companya de la co		Inisis	UNEV	ALUA	ı ⊨D Inf	ormat	ion
East Germany will deliver among other things:  60,000 tons of potassium salts 800 tons of toluene nitroaniline (East Germany has previously refused to deliver this to Yugoslavia) 200 tons of Buna S3 at $340 per ton! 30 tons of "Gentalit Rhenisch", an explosives stabilizer, also delivered for the first time!  2. Other than traditional export products, Yugoslavia will deliver to East Germany 2,000 bottles of mercury at $376 per bottle. East Germany asked for large quantities of mercury sublimate which Yugoslavia was unable to supply because of heavily increased demands over the last three months.  Comments:  25X  1. a wooing of Yugoslavia in the sudden deliveries of explosive con- stituents, and in the price of the Buna S3 which compares most favorably with the price of over $1,000 per ton.  2. it possible for Yugoslavia to have saved up 2,000 bottles of mercury in spite of having to sell fixed quotas of the commodity 25X1  3. the demand for mercury sublimate arises because the price of this commodity now makes it economically worthwhile to use it to produce mercury.	*				HE APPRAI	SAL OF	CONTENT I	TENTA		E.		- 1		25X1
a wooing of Yugoslavia in the sudden deliveries of explosive constituents, and in the price of the Buna S3 which compares most favorably with the price of over $1,000 per ton.  2.	2.	Other to 2,000 b quantit	time <sup>1</sup> han tra ottles ies of	ditions of merc mercury	il expo cury at y subli	ort pr t $376 Lmate	oducts per bo	Yugo ttle Yugosl	oslavia <sup>2</sup> Eas Lavia w	will o t Germa as unal	deliver	to E	ast Ger r large	rmany
mercury in spite of having to sell fixed quotas of the commodity  25X1  3.	1.	stituen	а	wooing in the	price	of t	he Buns	1 S3 h	hich co	eliveri Ompares	es of most	explo: favor:	sive co	On- ith	25X′
of this commodity now makes it economically worthwhile to use it to produce mercury.  25X1		mercury	in spi	it po te of h	ssible aving	for to se	Yugosla 11 fixe	via t	o have tas of	saved the co	up 2,0 mmodit	00 ро	ttles o	o f	25X1
STATE X ARMY X NAVY X AIR X FBI AEC ORR EV X	3. [			ity				reury	sublima makes	ate ari	ses be	cause ly won	the pr	Le	25X1 5X1
	STATE 2	ARMY	X	NAVY	х	AIR	X	BI	AEC	Ţ	ORR E	х		25	5 X 1

